

iLuv Announces A New Series of Power Chargers For iPhones, iPods and Any USB Device

iLuv Offers A Small Portable Solution to Charging Multiple Devices at Once, Eliminating the Need to Carry Multiple Chargers

PORT WASHINGTON, NY – (August 13, 2009) - iLuv, the leader in innovative audio solutions, announces the iLuv iAD 117 Triple USB Port Power Adapter and iAD116 Mini USB Power Adapter. This new series of small easy to carry power adapters are the perfect solution for iPod, iPhone, MP3, and other gadget lovers who are looking to eliminate carrying multiple chargers when they travel. The iAD117 features 3-USB ports for charging up to 3-devices at once and is available in international versions. The iAD117 will be available for the MSRP of $19.99 and the iAD116 for the MSRP of $14.99 at www.i-luv.com starting in September 2009.

“Our new series of power adapters provides a great solution to travelers and gadget lovers who always need to carry multiple charging adapters or need multiple power outlets” says Howard Kim for iLuv. “We are happy to add a series of charging solutions that includes a 3-USB port AC adapter model and micro single USB port AC adapter model”.

The iAD117, small in size allows you to charge three devices at once with three built-in USB ports. The iAD116 mini AC adapter features a single USB port. Compatible with iPhone, iPod or any other USB device these AC adapters feature a LED power indicator and prongs that fold down for easy packing and storing.
