iLuv iAD 115 Micro USB and iAD119 Dual USB Car Chargers Power Your Gadgets While on the Go

PORT WASHINGTON, NY – (August 20, 2009) - iLuv, the leader in innovative audio solutions, debuts the iLuv iAD 115 Micro USB Car Charger and iAD119 Dual USB Car Charger. This new series of car chargers are the perfect solution for iPod, iPhone, MP3, GPS and other gadget lovers who need a power boost while on the go. The iAD115 Micro USB Car Charger is so small it can be concealed inside the cigarette lighter by simply closing the cover, finally eliminating the bulky awkward chargers that are always in the way. The iAD119 Dual USB Car Charger allow you to charge two devices at once eliminating the need to choose which you need more, your GPS or your phone. The iAD115 will be available in September 2009 for the MSRP of $14.99 and the iAD119 in September for MSRP $19.99 at www.i-luv.com

“Our new series of car chargers provides a great solution to auto owners who always need a recharge for their cell phone, iPod or other must have gadget” says Howard Kim for iLuv. “We are happy to add both a dual charging solution and micro charger that will meet the needs of multiple gadget owners or auto owners who dislike the bulky car charger options that have been available”.

Both the iAD115 and iAD119 have a variety of features including:
